

SUNWAY KORDIS (SHANGHAI) LTD

Sunway Kordis (Shanghai) Ltd, (known as SunKor), is a leading manufacturer of food wrap film and plastic bags in China. Invested and managed by the excellent team with Chinese and European talents, all of whom have decades of experience in this industry.

Its own brand "Homeline" is one of the top brands in terms of market share of food freezer bag, cling film and garbage bag in China. SunKor is also one of the major suppliers to retailers' own brand (private label) such as Carrefour, Metro, Wal-Mart, and other major grocery retailers in China.

As an important exporter in Asia, Sunkor's products enjoy a high reputation in its export markets: Europe, Australia, Asia, and North America.

Sunkor's mission is to become the preferred supplier of garbage bags, food and freezer bags and cling film to the major retailers and food service companies in China and internationally, whether in brand or in retailers' own label.

In Shanghai, Sunkor has a well-equipped production facility. Its production is strictly in line with international Hygiene and Quality standards and ISO9001 requirements. It has also passed frequent quality, hygiene, social and ethical audits by international retailers.

What makes us stand out is the brand operation and management.

All our activities are aimed at exceeding our customers' expectations along with our continuous innovation and technical improvements.
